

2004 NATIONAL PEACE CORPS ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE

Celebrating a Legacy of Service

Hosted by: Chicago Area Peace Corps Association

The National Peace Corps Association (NPCA) and Chicago Area Peace Corps Association (CAPCA) will celebrate their 25th anniversaries during the 2004 biennial Conference. Mayor Richard M Daley serves as Honorary Chairman. The 2004 NPCA Conference offers Returned Peace Corps Volunteers the opportunity to reunite with old friends, meet new friends, reconnect with Peace Corps, learn more about the world and tour Chicago.

DATES: Thursday, August 5th to Sunday, August 8th, 2004

LOCATION: Palmer House Hilton Hotel in the heart of downtown Chicago

ATTENDEES: Returned Peace Corps Volunteers from across the country

EVENTS INCLUDE:

Opening and Closing Ceremonies

Leaders in public and international affairs will address conference participants. Speakers include Wisconsin Governor Jim Doyle and First Lady Jessica Doyle, His Excellency Hedayat Amin Arsala, Vice President of the Transitional Islamic State of Afghanistan and former Thailand Foreign Minister Surin Pitsuwan.

Career Fair & Workshops

Companies and non-profit organizations from across the nation who are interested in hiring RPCVs will participate in the Career Fair. Career workshops will focus on resume writing, graduate school programs, post- Peace Corps career paths & more.

Country of Service Activities

Events will bring RPCVs together to eat ethnic food reminisce of old times and hear updates about their countries.

Workshops
